Research Reports

- We are expecting to receive publication decisions of two submitted manuscripts (we will revise as necessary)
- We are finalizing a draft manuscript for our Learning Sciences Research Workgroup's (DE and MD) collaborative Study on a LP for Climate Change (it will be submitted for journal peer-review; we will revise as necessary based on editorial feedback)

Y5 Research Study:

An Investigation of the Use of Polar Research by PreCollegiate Teachers to Teach About Climate Change

- From our NSF SIP: Assess approaches to professional development that foster changes in teacher knowledge, skills, and dispositions .
- Our study sample: (participants in the 2016 MADE CLEAR Summer Academy)
